

Best in teaching recognised at the ELTons

by Robert Mair

English Teaching Professional, May 2014

http://www.etprofessional.com/best_in_teaching_recognised_at_the_eltons_25769811390.aspx

Best in teaching recognised at the ELTons

The best in innovation in English Language Teaching was recognised in this year's ELTon award last night (22 May) at a glitzy awards dinner held at BMA House, Tavistock Square, London.

Details of the winners can be found below.

Excellence in Course Innovation

WINNER: Dyslexia for Teachers of English as a Foreign Language (Dystefl) - Dystefl Project

Innovation in Learner Resources

WINNER: Academic Skills Series - Collins

Innovation in Teacher Resources

WINNER: The Disabled Access Friendly campaign - Katie Quartano and Paul Shaw

Digital Innovation

WINNER: Doctors Speak Up: Communication and Language Skills for International Medical Graduates - R. Woodward-Kron, C. Bow, C. Fraser, J. Pill, E. Flynn

Local Innovation

WINNER: P.A.L.S Scheme, (Promoting Acceptance of Language Students) - Country Cousins Ltd (UK)

The Macmillan Education Award for New Talent in Writing

WINNER: Compass (Upper Intermediate) - Elizabeth (Lizzie) Pinard

Lifetime Achievement Award

WINNER: Michael Swan

Further information, interviews and videos of the event will appear here:
<http://englishagenda.britishcouncil.org/eltons>